He was proud of his family and especially loved to attend activities such as band, sports, graduations, dramas and any other activities involving his children and grandchildren.

Charles loved serving God and helping others anyway possible. He was a member of Our Saviour Lutheran Church and Westhaven Baptist Church where he served as a Sunday school teacher, youth group leader, committee member, choir member and deacon as well as fixed anything needed at the church.

He enjoyed sailing. He sailed in two Port Huron to Mackinac sail boat races as well as many more yacht club races. He served as a crew member on Tsunami thanks to Brian Warren.
