Biographical sketch for Scott Hensel courtesy of Charlie Heubner:

Scott earned a BS in engineering and BA in political science from Brown University. MBA from Fairleigh-Dickinson University in Teaneck, NJ

Scott joined Humble Oil (a division of EXXON) after graduation from Brown. He met his wife, Constance, in NJ. He moved to Houston with EXXON USA and spent 14 years with them from 1967 to 1981. He joined Technology and Business Consultants Inc. (a computer consulting firm) as a Vice President for several years. He then joined ADMINISTAFF as Senior VP, Benefits Administration in 1987 and helped the company become publicly owned. He continued with the company and served as a senior officer and member of the Board of Directors for several years. Scott retired in 1995 at age 50 and became involved in restoring and racing former race cars, which he apparently enjoyed enormously.

Scott spent most of his working life in Houston, Texas.
