We want to give a special thanks to Suncoast Hospice and Advanced Rehabilitation and Health Center. He had many interests such as building and flying rockets with his grandkids. He enjoyed socializing with friends and family and attending church. He was such a kind hearted man that many people looked up to. If anyone needed anything he was the man you could run to. He will be greatly missed by many that crossed his path. He had a love for eagles and now he is soaring like one in heaven.
