

Carl David Young

Carl David Young

Born: 11 July 1945 in Port Huron, MI

Marriage: in Port Huron, MI

Died: 11 January 1979 in Chicago, IL

WEST CHICAGO, IL – Carl D. Young, 33, of 109B W. Geneva St., died January 11 in Central DePage Hospital.

He was born July 11, 1945, in Port Huron. He spent his childhood and married in Port Huron. Formerly of Lombard he resided in West Chicago since August 1977.

Mr. Young was assistant Manager of inventory at Certain-Teed Products Corp.

He is survived by his wife Jane E.; a daughter, Sarah; and two sons, Timothy and Michael, all of West Chicago; his mother, Mrs. Ethel Young, Port Huron; three brothers, Robert, Chicago, Jerry, Bristol, Conn., and John, Port Huron; and two sisters, Beverly Johnson, Elk Grove village, Ill., and Patricia Kolman, Flushing.

His father, Albert Young, died earlier.

Services were held Saturday in West Chicago Bible Church. The Rev. Howard Westlund officiated. Burial was in Glen Oaks Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Kitchen fund of the West Chicago Bible Church or the Christian Service Brigade of the Lombard Bible Church.

Published in the Port Huron Times Herald, 17 January 1979, page 6D.

