

Port Huron High School Class Of 1963

September 19, 2014

Hello Classmates,

I had several nice responses from Janet's close high school friends. This response was particularly nice for as Paul Harvey would say, "... the rest of the story". It comes from Janet about her father's dream.

From Janet MacEachin-Minter-Wagstaff ...

Before I scrolled down to read the story, I knew it was about my father Don MacEachin.

Yes he did graduate from Trinity University in San Antonio with his Bachelors of Business Administration. In fact, he and I graduated the same year and month from college. I was in Austin at the University of Texas. He then attended Baylor University in Waco, TX where he got his Master's Degree in Finance. He and my mother then moved to Mobile, AL where he was a professor of finance at the University of AL. After several years in AL, he finally retired to make room for younger professors and moved back to San Antonio, TX.

While he was getting his undergraduate degree at Trinity he played golf on the University golf team.

He had a very full and eventful life.

Thanks for the memory.

Janet (MacEachin) Minter-Wagstaff

70th Birthday Picnic -

If you haven't checked out the web page lately, you might want to do so. I have created a couple of new web pages.

First, the home page has a new button on the left side of the page for "NEWSLETTERS". It has dawned on me, and I don't know why I didn't think of this before, many of the classmates don't get my emails. So sending an email out to those that may not check the web page often, they can get updates. And for those that I do not have email addresses for, they get to see the same newsletter as I send out. Sometimes emails can go to the spam bucket, so you can check the web page to see the latest newsletters. I think this is the best way to serve everyone.

Next, I have added a couple of links to the "Save the Date" announcement on the home page. One comes from "Nick" Nicholson. It is a 360 degree view of the Fort Gratiot Park. The second is a link to a new web page that will contain the a list of those that have express very positive interest, and the latest status of the proposed 70th birthday party plans. I will be updating this page with the latest progress in contracts and costs. Until I have signed contracts, I will not know the costs. I will try very hard to keep it to $15 per person. That amount seems agreeable to all that have responded to date. Until that time, I will not be collecting any money. I have received very positive responses. THANK YOU.

Blessings,

Len Patterson
